FAMILY, Inc. provides public health and family support services to women, children and families in Southwest Iowa. It is FAMILY's primary goal to assist parents in becoming their child's first and most influential teacher through education, empowerment, and wellness. With offices located in Council Bluffs and Avoca the agency serves both urban and rural communities. These services are administered in homes, shelters, and community settings. Through its various programs FAMILY works to ensure families have access to the services and support they need to allow their children to enter school healthy, safe and ready to learn.

Vision - All children will learn, grow, and develop to realize their full potential.

Mission - Empower families to build a strong foundation and healthy future through education, advocacy, support, and community connection.

FAMILY provides evidence-based parenting classes, support groups, and parent/child socialization groups to any family in Pottawattamie County either on-site or off-site. A number of researched-based curricula including Circles of Security, and Early Childhood Systematic Training and Education for Parenting are utilized. FAMILY also collaborates with organizations in the community to provide classes. Free car seat checks are offered every other month. Maternal/Child Nursing Visits and Maternal Depression Screening are also offered. All services are provided by Certified Educators.

FAMILY partners with Iowa West Foundation, United Way of the Midlands, Iowa Department of Public Health, Delta Dental, Boost 4 Families, Safe Kids Worldwide, Promise Partners, Iowa Department of Education, and Prevent Child Abuse Iowa.
